Invitation to Folly

You are hereby invited to peruse and enjoy The Joker, but be forewarned that reading this very invitation now qualifies you as a Fool!

"Who, Me?" You might say. "Yes, You!" Comes the inevitable rejoinder.

If you enjoy a good laugh, if you're willing to be the butt of a joke, if you don a costume - whenever possible, if telling the truth to power tickles your funny-bone, if you're inspired to sing and dance when nobody else hears the music, or even if none of the above applies to you, You are most definitely a Fool. (As is everyone to some extent, but some of us are not loath to admit it.) Now that we have that settled, we bid you again welcome and invite you to fascinating fêtes and foolish frolics!

This is the Internet, so of course it costs nothing to enjoy The Joker, the foolish fruit of our labors. We've even formatted it so you may print and peruse it at your leisure; we would even print it ourselves, slap a few stamps on it and send it to you.

BUT you must contact us to let us know that is your wish.

We'd welcome you in any case, but if so moved and could spare a few shekels for mailing YOURS, we wouldn't mind. (A Fool and his what..?)

$21 per year will do nicely.

Dress as your favorite Castaway or in Lu'au attire!

On December 31st, 2016 our Ship of Fools set sail to Ports o' Call around the Globe, to finally dock in 2017. Our Fools transformed the interior of the Mayflower Club, hanging beautiful murals rendered by Danny Garland and Michael Hruska of our various ports, such as Venice, Paris, the tropics and the Middle East.

Donning her sexy jeans and workers clothes our very own King Justeenie Wahinie took on the labor of hanging these masterpieces under the instruction of our Master Designer Mr. G and Royal Cabana Boy John DiBona. Andy Corwin, straight in from Austin for the occasion, took to the task as well with the help of Bjorn Reddington, Zoey Tur, Russell Frazier, John Higley, Danielle Guzenske and Mike O'Connor.

As well as helping hang, Andy Davis lit up the front of the club with assistance of Richard Beard and Jerry Fitzgerald. King Lickety Split chronicled the action on her cell camera. Our cruise was ready to embark! And what a gala extravaganza it turned out to be!

Fools, Mayflower and Celtic Arts members showed up in elegant evening regalia. DJ Delecta Paula Foster kept the pace going spinning tunes from various regions on our journey, as well as standard dance jams from the 40's to present day.

The crowd was fortunate enough to be treated to performances by legendary Andy Corwin of the Limeliter's and famed Shawn Paris (just back from the city of his name sake), as well as sing-alongs led by Mayflower members of note. Ex-rex Delecta made a poignant observation regarding the community building sing-alongs seem to provide, much to her pleasant surprise. Andy Davis and Tuba Heatherton provided comedic black-outs to carry the show into the highlight of the evening; Trissia Baughman's belly-dance performance, representing our docking in the Middle East. She shimmied and shook, clanging her finger symbols, all the while balancing a clay jug on her head and mesmerizing the crowd.

Our final stop before 2017 were the beloved islands of Hawai'i, expressed by your Kings The Royal Honey Lulus enticing the entire party to dance the Huki Lau (which every able bodied soul did!) All the while, The Mayflower Club's replica of Big Ben ticked closer and closer to our destination.

The tea sandwiches and deserts were scrumptious (thanks to the Mayflower kitchen staff led by Tess and to my mom's exercise teacher Charlotte), the bar overflowed with a variety of drinks and the passengers danced the night away until the clock struck midnight, the countdown being led by Tuba, the balloons dropped and Auld Lang Syne rang out. We kissed, we embraced, we toasted champagne and frenetically danced, hoping against all odds for a brighter New Year.

As both Justeenie and I had gigs the following morning we gathered the troops and tore the place down in less than an hour, loading everything into DiBona's truck, an impossible feat if it weren't for the help of John Biondo, Gary Chambers, Tuba Heatherton, Bjorn Reddington, Ruth Factor, Mike O'Connor, Maple Moriji, John Mackey, Jonnathon Cripple, Andy Davis, Danielle Guzenske, Caitlyn Gateaux, Russell Frazier, and of course Mayflower Manager Terrel Miller and her beau Carlos the Latino Paul Bunyan.

Please forgive me if I forgot to mention anyone who contributed to the evening. We would not have had such a sparkling success if it weren't for the party builders, the music makers and the dreamers of dreams....

A big Royal Mahalo to all of you and to all who attended this sensational voyage across the sea of time!

Aloha Fabulous Fools!
What a year We Three Kings have had!
Hula dancing through time and space
from the Lantermann Summer Whites Picnic, to re-visiting our childhood at Camp Runamuck and Pooh Bear's nightmare Halloween, to the glamorous cruise around the world on New Years, and all the Viva Cantina extravaganzas in between, the Aloha spirit has infused each event.

Being King for a second reign (albeit it a third of a full King) I feel like a parent having her second child. Still just as concerned and loving but also knowing a bit what to expect. It also gives me a different perspective on how our Guild has shifted, changed, evolved. If not for this change, we would have arrested development.

Perhaps we have lost Fools along the way, concepts of parties may be less grandiose, and yet
the love and connection continues.
Once a Fool, always a Fool.
And so, our Family of Folly sojourns forth, sailing towards new, unknown horizons,
like the Tarot card Fool, jaunting carelessly off the cliff,
knowing all will be as it's meant to be.
Please join us for our Grand Finale,
our High Holy Day, April 1st,
on Gilligan's Island!

How Green Was My Valley and The Color of Money

All Aboard The Minnow!

Let's go on a voyage
To Gilligan's Isle
On a ship full of Fools,
Our time to beguile.

I'm asking you, please
Won't you join on our trip?
You won't need a trunk,
A valise or a grip
Your sunscreen you'll leave,
Likewise your umbrella,
But bring, if you've got 'em
Your gal or your fella.

Let's tarry most merry;
Let's sing and let's dance;
Let's let it hang out;
Let's whoop and let's prance;
Let's give it a whirl;
And let ourselves go;
Our flags we'll unfurl
Our colors to show;
We'll blow our own horn
Till troubles begone!!!

So come on aboard...
We won't be gone long.

Stuart Little Big Man

Dances With Werewolves of London

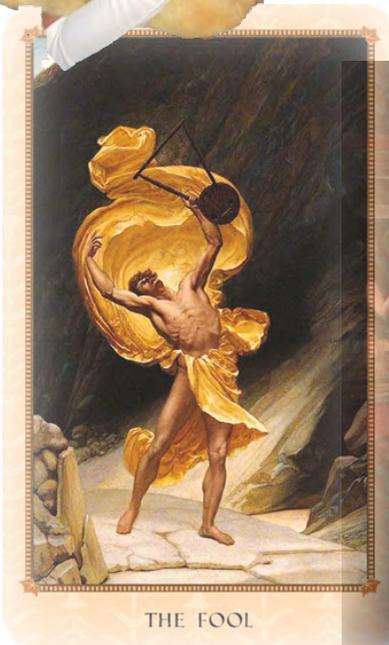

It has been an honor serving as one third of your majesty King of the Fools Justeenie Wahine this past year and reigning one third supreme over the motley crew of fools. I am happy to say that no orders were given and none followed but I accumulated many hilarious memories. The madness began when a gaggle of fools in clown noses approached the stage of Viva Cantina genuflecting as the Honey-Lulus performed their wacky Waikiki numbers. Coronation at the Renaissance Faire was a madcap romp with so much help and support from the Fools Guild members. Tribute of gorgeous crowns and valuable jewels gave us sumptuous pretensions! Kooky loony harebrained advice and a binge of gourmet food and drink was given and absorbed at Privy Council Meetings! Dignity was absent from one shindig to another including concerts by the Briton Ensemble, Catherine's Birthday, a summer Campfire Party, Christmas Eve, and a New Year's Eve Cruise on the HMS Mayflower. A giant royal pardon to all who disgraced themselves with excessive revelry under our monarchy and we hope you continue to embarrass yourselves at our Gilligan's Island Gala on April Fools Day!

How Green Was My Valley Of The Dolls

Going My Way?

Where would I be without you?
Just any old place wouldn't do.
Perhaps there in Éire, in the town of Tralee,
Upon the Auld Sod would satisfy me
But lacking my Honey, what fun would that be?

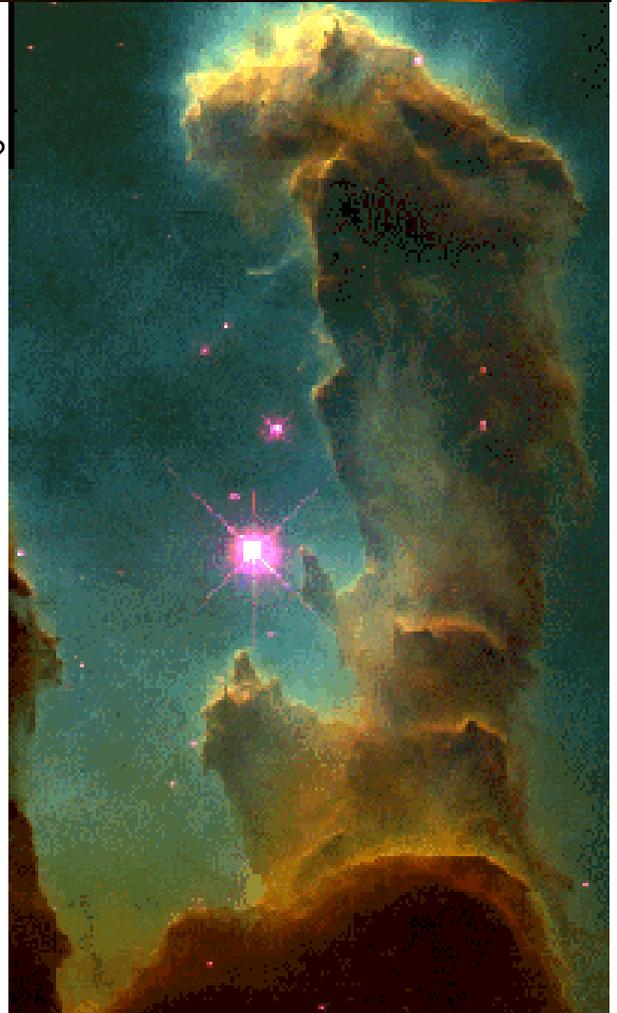

For nowhere on earth will do
Without you.
Without you.
I'd travel the world to find you.

What good are those sights I might see
If you cannot see them with me?
Someplace out in space where we'd see the whole earth?
But grand as that sounds, don't save me a berth
'Cause unless you are there, what would it be worth?

For nowhere on earth will do
Without you
Without you.
My world doesn't turn without you.

Why travel to broaden my mind
If I only loneliness find?
I'll roam here at home in your arms, in our bed
Exploring your body, your mind and your head
So let's eschew travel to stay here instead

For nowhere on earth will do
Without you
Without you
I'm happy wherever there's you.

King Duke Diga Diga Doo's... Dumb and Dumber and Dumbo

Eunuch lovely tonight!

Although Americans are often given credit for the invention of the kazoo, it traces its lineage back to medieval Europe and the "mirliton." Also known as the -- ahem -- "eunuch flute," it is a member of the noble membranophone family.

Thank you, Alan Keith and Greg Dana, for that one!

The word, "jazz" should not be used in polite company: a variation on the word for, well, um, "joy juice" or "smells like mushroom soup" ...

Learned that in college, from a professor I will never forget. A toast to Higher Education!

Odd Things I've Learned from Foolish Friends

Here I shall recite a lovely verse from decades ago:

A well-born dame of upper crust
Who was so old she farted dust
Her lower parts have gone to rust
From carnal lack of use
What can she do?
She cannot ...dance
We give her Drake's Elixir
Her bosom swells!
She healthy smells!
And Cupid comes and pricks her

Three Days In The Valley Of The Dolls

King Duke Diga Diga Doo gets sentimental for a minute... I have many wonderful and lasting friendships thanks to the Fools' Guild, and innumerable fabulous experiences! You are my Chosen Family!

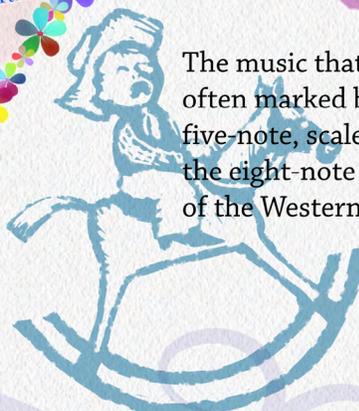

One example: Hard to believe, but The Honey-Lulus would never even have met! We began to form over a chat about ukuleles at Tuba's birthday party, and debuted thanks to Eric Vollmer's Tiki Salon, Eric, whom I first met at a Fools' Guild afternoon tea dance.

I've dropped a few names, and I wish I could share here all the names of all the fantastic Fools I have met, loved, lost, still get to spend great times with. Many thanks to all of you for greatly enriching my life!

The music that we hear in Western movies is often marked by the use of the pentatonic, or five-note, scale, which is very different from the eight-note scale we are used to in music of the Western hemisphere. ... HUH?

Having No Shame

If you found you've aroused lascivious thoughts
 When you're looking with lust and it's getting you hot
 And you don't feel too old for a tickle and poke,
 Then also you're up for a good dirty joke
 To shock all your relatives proper and staid.
 Just mention you're hoping tonight to get laid
 With anecdotes ribald, light-hearted, lubricious
 About how you found going down just delicious!

So never outgrow your enjoyment of sex.
 May your parts always work,
 Both concave and convex,
 May you ever be ripe for a roll in the hay
 And handy and randy and ready to play
 And when you get lucky enjoy a good lay
 But if it don't happen still have a great day.
