The Royal Honey-Lulus 36th King of Fools

The Royal Honey-Lulus, are three charming and talented wahines;
Kate Friedrichs “Duke Diga Diga Doo”, Justeen Ward “Justeenie Wahine” and Christina Linhardt “Huki Pookie” who perform vintage songs of the islands and dance like the swaying palms, live and in Thrilling Technicolor!

They are known for their collaboration with the legendary folk trio The Limelites, for their performances at the NAMM Show (representing Mahalo Ukuleles),
The Dresden Room, Viva Cantina (with a monthly residency),
Art Stein’s Annual Elvis Birthday Bash Tribute, headlining at Bob Stane’s Coffee Gallery and “edu-tainment” shows at Library Concert Series throughout the SoCal area.

Every human shares aspects of the Fool (should we care to admit it) and today we celebrate that spirit in this exuberant parade culminating with the crowning of next year's King Of Fools. Kings Duke Diga Diga Doo, Justeenie Wahine and Huki Pookie are the latest in a Faire tradition spanning decades, an unbroken line of frivolity and mirth and now you are a part of it.

Throughout the year The Fools Guild holds revels and hosts parties with themes that encourage costume and inspire creativity. All are welcome to bring their talents to help plan and mount parties, so check us out online and send email to: kate@skypulele.com
